Carl Monague Sr. Leadership Award

About the Award

Carl Monague's devotion to education was one of his many life's purposes; he told his children daily to complete their education to the fullest, and to never give up on what they have started, to "Never stop Learning." He also thought of himself as being a teacher by teaching his own children life's lessons. Education begins at home and Carl always made sure that homework was always completed in order to have his children present their very best effort always.

The Carl Monague Sr. Leadership award is for Beausoleil First Nation Youth in pursuit of post-secondary education, whether it be with an accredited University or College, training or apprenticeship program, internship, a program of part-time studies or any of a number of other educational endeavours. The intent of the award, which adheres to an expansive definition of "post secondary education", is intended to help a broad range of graduating secondary school students take the next steps towards their future through fulfilling their educational goals.

Eligibility

Beausoleil First Nation Youth, Grade 12 graduates entering post-secondary. A 750 word essay on how you have demonstrated community involvement, while maintaining good grades at school. In your essay include specific detail pertaining to this award. Include grades (transcript or status sheet) and support letter.

Purpose of the Award

The Carl Monague Leadership Award is intended to support applicants who demonstrate the desire to achieve their educational goals. Applications will be assessed in accordance with established criteria.

Amount of the Award

Award valued up to $ 1000.00, applicants are assessed individually.

Allocation of Award

Applications are reviewed by the Beausoleil Education Advisory Committee and an Education Department employee. After reviewing applications, the Committee will choose a recipient.

Hayden King Sr. Memorial Award

About the Award

The Hayden King Sr. Memorial award honours the supporting role that family members of Chimnissing's graduating students play. Without parents, grandparents, aunties, cousins, students may never have made it to school, or earned graduation. This Award asks graduating students to nominate an individual in their family who made their accomplishment possible and to recognize that contribution. This award is sponsored by his son and Beausoleil First Nation member; Professor Hayden King.

Eligibility

Beausoleil First Nation student, graduating secondary or post-secondary.

A 500-word essay on how you have been supported and how that has helped in your ability to graduate.

Purpose of the Award

The Hayden King Sr. Memorial Award is intended to support those loved ones that have supported their educational goals. Applications will be assessed in accordance with established criteria.

Amount of the Award

Award valued up to $ 500.00, applicants are assessed individually. The award is payable to the recipient.

Allocation of Award

Applications are reviewed by the BEAC and the Education Dept. After reviewing applications, a recipient will be chosen.

Remember to include a 500-word essay, and your proof of graduation.

Deadline: July 7th

Submit application to:

Sylvia Norton-Sutherland, Student Support Worker, Email: sylvia@chimnissing.ca

Jack of All Trades Award in Honour of Nancy King-Copegog

About the Award

The Jack of All Trades in Honour of Nancy Copegog-King is to celebrate her dedication, commitment and love for her community along with her leadership, wisdom and kindness which made her a shining star. Nancy loved the outdoors, working with her hands, enjoyed working with children of all ages and encouraged them to do what they loved. She opened her arms and home and made everyone feel welcomed. She was multi talented and could be as gentle as a butterfly; she could put together a Welcoming Blanket for a newborn within hours or be as rough and tumble as the next guy. She loved and had conquered heavy equipment; which had become her passion.

Eligibility

Beausoleil First Nation Youth, Grade 12 graduates entering post-secondary.

A 750 word essay on how you have demonstrated some of the same qualities while maintaining good grades at school, and what that has taught you. How does the spirit of Nancy K-C impact your daily life?

Purpose of the Award

The Jack of all Trades Award is intended to support applicants who demonstrate the desire to achieve their educational goals. Applications will be assessed in accordance with established criteria.

Amount of the Award

Award valued up to $ 500.00 or $1000.00 applicants are assessed individually.

Allocation of Award

Applications are reviewed by the family of Nancy King-Copegog, with support of the BEAC and the Education Dept. After reviewing applications, the Family will choose a recipient.

Remember to include a copy of your latest transcript or report card, a 750 word essay, acceptance into college or university program, a support letter from a colleague or teacher supporting your application.

Beausoleil First Nation Youth "Step Up" Award

Application Information

Please carefully read the application guidelines before completing the application form.

About the Award

The "Step Up" award was established by a Christian Island Cottager. Each year, funds are gathered from fellow cottagers and friends to assist Beausoleil First Nation Youth in their pursuit of post-secondary education, whether it be with an accredited University or College, a training or apprenticeship, an internship, a program of part-time studies or any of a number of other educational enterprises. The intent of the award, which adheres to an expansive definition of "post-secondary education", is intended to help a broad range of graduating secondary school students take the next steps towards their future through further education.

Eligibility

Beausoleil First Nation Youth under the age of 22 who are graduating from secondary school in the current academic year, or those who have graduated and been out of school for no more than two years may apply.

Purpose of the Award

The "Step Up" award is intended to support applicants who clearly demonstrate the need for financial assistance in achieving their educational goals. Applications will be assessed in accordance with established criteria. "Step Up" awards do not have to be repaid.

Amount of the Award

Submitting an application does not guarantee that an application will receive funding. There is no set amount for the award - every applicant is assessed individually. The level of financial assistance varies according to the assessed financial need of applicants, the number of applicants, and the availability of funds for allocation.

Allocation of Awards

Applications are reviewed by an Allocations Committee composed of three individuals: two Beausoleil First Nation members assigned to the committee by the Beausoleil First Nation Education Department and one Christian Island Cottager, assigned to the award by the "Step Up" Award founder. After reviewing applications the Allocation Committee will choose the recipient(s) and determine the amount(s) to be awarded. The decisions made by the Allocations Committee are final.

Assessment Criteria:

When assessing applications, the Committee uses the following criteria.

- Demonstrated financial need
- Evidence of suitability and commitment to field of study.
- Demonstrated academic merit and performance.

Successful Award Recipients

- Awards allocated must be used for the program of study specified on the application form.
- All awards are a matter of public record and may be published by the Beausoleil First Nation Education Department and the "Step Up" Award founders.

Notification

All applicants - successful or otherwise - will receive written notification of the Committee's decision regarding their individual application.

Application Process

Conditions:

1) Awards are provided for the academic year that begins in the fall term (September) of the 4 year of the application, or for programs, courses and other initiatives beginning no more than ten months from July 31 of the year of application.

2) Applicants will be contacted by the Beausoleil First Nation Education Department should there be questions about their application package.

3) Applicants must complete all sections of the application form.

4) Applicants must provide the following documents with their application forms:

- Official transcript indicating the student's most recent record of studies and grades
- Letter addressed to the "Allocations Committee" (minimum 500 words, maximum 1,500 words stating:
 - a.) academic achievements, artistic accomplishments, community service, volunteerism, entrepreneurship and/or leadership
 - b.) the field of study to be pursued
 - c.) the program, course(s) or activities for which funds are being requested
 - d.) why the applicant is passionate about this field of study
 - e.) any special circumstances that the applicant thinks the Allocation Committee should give consideration in reviewing your application
- Verification of tuition & fees (from course calendar, brochure, or webpage).
- Confirmation of acceptance in an educational program, however, if this information is not available at the time the application is due, applicants must provide this documentation to the Beausoleil First Nation Education Department as soon as it becomes available.

Submitting the Application Form

- Keep a copy of your application package for your personal records.
- Application packages can be sent by mail, courier, or submitted in person to the Beausoleil First Nation Education Department, 11 O'Gema Miikan, Christian Island, On L9M-OA9

Application Deadline

The deadline for applications is July 7 of each year. Completed applications can be hand-delivered to the Beausoleil First Nation Band Office or must be postmarked on or before the deadline date to be eligible.

"Step Up" Award funds are managed by the Huronia Communities Foundation. Huronia Communities Foundation is a public foundation serving the people of Huronia. The Foundation builds permanently endowed charitable funds for the changing needs and opportunities of the community and provides grants to eligible charitable organizations in arts, culture, health, environment, sports & recreation and social service sectors.

The Victor Blake Monague 'Entrepreneurial Spirit' Memorial Bursary

Who was Victor Blake Monague?

Victor Blake Monague was a Beausoleil First Nation member who owned and operated a small business on Christian Island called Vic's Variety. After graduating from Midland Secondary School in Midland, Vic worked hard in starting and opening a small family convenience store. His hard work, dedication and bright spirit allowed him to become a respected and successful entrepreneur. Vic's passion lies within his community and his family. Vic worked effortlessly to mentor and hire Chimnissing youth through summer and full-time positions within his store, advocating for men's mental health and philanthropy through various donations, and volunteering within the community. Victor Blake Monague was a volunteer firefighter in the Beausoleil Fire Department, where he continued his educational journey by taking part in certified training and earning various certificates and licenses. Victor had a love for music, being on the water boating or fishing and sports, especially baseball. Alongside all of these accomplishments, most importantly, he was a loving father, husband, son, brother, uncle, cousin, and a valued community member who defined the term "entrepreneurial spirit."

What is an entrepreneurial spirit?

An entrepreneurial spirit is a self-motivated attitude and mentality that drives a person to fulfill their potential and purpose. This invisible force creates action-oriented, productive, decisive, inspirational, innovative, and self-sacrificing leaders.

Amount:

The successful applicant will be awarded a one-time payment of $1000.00.

Requirements:

- Be a registered Beausoleil First Nation member.
- Be able to demonstrate entrepreneurial spirit and community involvement.
- Be actively registered in a trades/college/university program (Marketing, Business Administration, Governance, Finance, and other Entrepreneurial based programs)
- Submit by July 7

Victoria Francis Tobey Mueller Bravery Award

About the Award:

Victoria Francis Tobey Mueller's life was an inspiration to her family and friends. She exemplified the innate Bravery of the Anishinabe people through her actions and has motivated many in her immediate family to achieve success in life and give back to their people.

Born in Honey Harbour, Ontario on March 22, 1909 to Peter [Anawmedabe] & Delina Tobey she inherited her Mother's gift for healing, and her Father's belief in continuing education.

During the summers in Honey Harbour, Medical Doctors would vacation at local cottages and when needed provided their expertise to the local people even though most all health was maintained and sickness handled by traditional Indian herbal remedies.

Through these interactions with the visiting Medical Doctors, Victoria was encouraged to become formally educated as a nurse. In order to do so, she would need to move to Buffalo, New York and attend a Nursing School. Victoria moved away without knowing anyone and became a Nurse, but never forgot her roots. She maintained a close relationship with family and passed on her passion for helping others to her children.

The Victoria Francis Tobey Mueller Bravery Award is for Beausoleil First Nation Members in pursuit of post-secondary type education, whether it be with an accredited University or College, training or apprenticeship program, internship, a program of part-time studies or any of a number of other educational endeavors. The intent of the award, which adheres to an expansive definition of "post-secondary education", is intended to help a broad range of graduating secondary school students, as well as, other steps towards their future through fulfilling their goals.

Eligibility:

Must be a Beausoleil First Nation member entering an accredited post secondary institution. Include a 750 word essay explaining the brave steps you have taken towards your educational goals that resemble those of Victoria Tobey-Mueller. Emails are accepted.

Purpose of the Award:

The Victoria Francis Tobey Mueller Bravery Award is intended to support applicants who demonstrate the desire of achieving their educational goals. Applications will be assessed in accordance with established criteria.

Amount of the Award:

Award valued at $ 500.00 to $1,000.00, applicants are assessed individually.
