

“Purpose is less about what you want and more about what you give.”

Kristin Monague

Proud Anishnaabekwe

Mother of Lily & Camden

Diploma in Indigenous Studies - Trent U

Certification in Indigenous Peoples Resource Management - U of Saskatchewan

Believer that kindness, compassion and encouragement
go a long way

The island is my home no matter where I live, no matter where my experience has taken me, my inspiration and dreams have always been deeply rooted in the place we call home.

It is with this passion, intent and inspiration that I graciously accept the nomination for Council in the 2018 election. In saying that, Chi-miigwech to my nominator Renee Jamieson and Amber King-Robitaille for seconding that nomination. What an honour and I thank you both for seeing potential in me to demonstrate my leadership abilities, skills and knowledge, complimented by my positive attitude, strong belief in the potential of our people, strong community and family values, in this exciting role.

I am loyal, possess a high degree of integrity and my work ethic is genetically inspired. I would certainly take pride in my role and responsibilities, my conduct and tact, to reflect positively on my family, my community and my nation.

I believe in being good, fair and kind. I believe in encouragement and participation. I believe in treating people how you want to be treated. I believe that our youth are not the leaders of tomorrow but of today and I believe that we all care about our home, its people and its future.

I hope to see you at candidates night but if you can't make it or just want to know more about me and what I will give in my role, email me at k_monague@hotmail.com. Miigwech. I encourage and welcome your support of my candidacy for Council in BFN Election 2018 - I won't disappoint!