

First Nation Land Management Regime Comparisons

RLEMP			Sectoral Self-Government (FNLMA)	Comprehensive Self-Government
Training & Development	Operational	Delegated Authority
RLAP		53/60
Partnership with AANDC	Partnership with AANDC	Partnership with AANDC	Government to government agreement (s-g for lands)	Government to government agreement (s-g for all services)
Entry criteria is less stringent	Entry criteria is less stringent	Entry criteria are more stringent.	Entry criteria is less stringent	Entry criteria is stringent
PLMCP training is provided by AANDC	<sup>2</sup> PLMCP training is provided by AANDC	<sup>3</sup> PLMCP Training is provided by AANDC	Training is the responsibility of the LAB and RC	Training is the responsibility of the FN a
AANDC Region primarily performs the <sup>1</sup> land management functions; FN performs simple activities	FN primarily performs land management functions; AANDC Region oversees activities	FN performs land management functions in accordance to sections 53 & 60 of the Indian Act	FN performs land management functions in accordance to the FN Land Code and laws	FN performs land management functions in accordance to the FN laws a a
AANDC has approval authority	AANDC has approval authority	FN has approval authority	FN has all approval authority	FN has all approval authority a
Funding is provided by AANDC	Funding is provided by AANDC	Funding is provided by AANDC	Funding is provided by AANDC	Funding is provided by AANDC a
Fiduciary obligation with AANDC	Fiduciary obligation with AANDC	Fiduciary obligation with AANDC	Fiduciary obligation is with the FN	Fiduciary obligation is with the FN

<sup>1</sup> Management of reserve land and natural resource; community land use planning; environmental management; and, monitoring=g and compliance.

<sup>2</sup> Training is provided at the Operational Level if the FN entered RLEMP at this level rather than the Training and Development Level.

<sup>3</sup> Training is provided at the Delegated Authority Level if the FN entered RLEMP| at that level rather than the Training and Development Level.