

Earth Day is April 22, 2019. However, this day falls on Easter Monday. The Lands Department will host its annual Earth Day clean-up the following day. We'll provide garbage bags and gloves. You provide the time and community spirit!

Where: The areas in front of the Band Office
(Seniors Building, Shoreline, Dock Area, Band Office)

When: Tuesday, April 23, 2019 – Rain or Shine. Dress appropriately!

Time: 9:30 a.m. – Meet at the Pavilion

Lunch (chili and scone) to be served for the volunteers. Also, Shelley Essauce, our new Community Climate Change Monitoring Liaison will be providing Climate Change information and presentations.

Aki giizhgat ensa giizhgat! (Earth Day is everyday!)
