Overview

We are seeking a dedicated and compassionate Literacy Teacher and/or Language Intervention Specialist to support students with language development and communication challenges. The ideal candidate will collaborate with educators, families, and students to assess, plan, and implement effective interventions that promote literacy and communication skills across our elementary school community. Join our team and help foster a supportive learning environment where every student can develop strong communication skills and achieve their full potential. Preference will be given to applicants with Indigenous descent.

Key Responsibilities Include:

- Conduct assessments to evaluate students’ speech, language, and communication abilities.
- Develop and implement individualized intervention plans tailored to each student’s needs.
- Provide direct, targeted instruction to students through one-on-one or small-group sessions.
- Collaborate with teachers, parents, and other staff to coordinate support strategies and ensure consistent implementation.
- Monitor and document students’ progress, adjusting intervention approaches as necessary.
- Assist classroom teachers with strategies to support language development for all students.
- Maintain accurate records of assessments, interventions, and progress reports.
- Stay informed about best practices and advances in speech and language pathology.
- Other tasks assigned by principal

Qualifications:

- Bachelor’s or Master’s degree in Speech-Language Pathology, Communication Disorders, or a related field.
- Experience working with elementary-aged children in educational settings preferred.
- Strong communication and collaboration skills.
- Compassionate, patient, and dedicated to student success.
